Build a Self-Sustaining Community for the Unhoused

To the Mayor, the Governor, and all housing authorities:

Los Angeles is experiencing an unprecedented homelessness crisis — existing approaches fall to underways fragmented, costly and inefficient.

I support the creation of a self-sustaining village with:

- A secure, dignified environment where people can choose be
- Tiered support-including harm reduction, social integration
- Facilities run and managed by trained formerly unhoused residents
- Investments in upward movement, instead of endlessly treating symptoms

This is our vision for a solution rooted in dignity, reason, and compassion.
